Glorious News From Old Maine!

According to Tuesday evening's dis patches from Maine, Plaisted, the Fusionist candidate for Governor of that State, is elected over Davis, the Republican candidate, by over 3,000 majority. Four out of five of the Fusion candidates for Congress are electeda gain of two for them. They also claim that they have a majority in both branches of the Legislature.

A few weeks ago notices were posted in various parts of the county informing the Republicans that a mass meeting would be held on the 11th inst., for the purpose of nominating a county ticket and transacting other important business. In pursuance to that call many stalwarts responded, and the country was promptly declared to be in danger, and must be saved. The next question was the modus operandi rah for Hancock and English! by which to reach this solution. That was readily determined. Only vote for Garfield and the Iron county Republican ticket and the country would promptly be declared out of danger, and peace and prosperity prevail. It seems to us that this declaration of danger to the country by Republican politicians is becoming, like the party itself, exaccording to Republican oracles. If New Jersey, and others. all unprejudiced men will look back over the rich developments of the last four years they will unhesitatingly declare that the most deadly thrusts to our institutions have been inflicted by such partizans as Garfield and Hayes. His only defense was the assertion that Oaks Ames lied and should not be believed, because he was a particeps criminis; admitting at the same families of Puritan New England. If Ames had been as black as they attempt to paint him, if he had been as willing to commit perjury as they now assert, it looks reasonable that he would have sworn himself clear of all guilty connection with the Credit Mobilier. Ames confessed his guilt and swore that he paid James A. Is it a matter of surprise that the speaker last Saturday consumed so much time in Garfield's defense? In attempting to lay the ghosts of that irregularity in Garfield's career, that casts a dark shadow over his Presidential canvass? The irregularity, to give it a mild term, that, like Poe's "Raven," 'Never flitting, still is sitting, still is sitting on the pallid bust of Pallas just above his chamber door; and his soul from out that shadow, that lies floatmore." It is a matter of considerable surprise, however, to hear a Republi- cal doings in Indiana: can orator quote Alexander H. Stephens,-that arch traitor,-in order to establish James A. Mosby, when he waved his black flag around Washington City, was a fiend incarnate; but publican ballot in his hand, his sins were condoned, his form was enshrouded with Republican robes of "seeming righteousness and purity," and was gently dismissed, holding in his hands the papers for a foreign mission.

The Greenbackers of Pennsylvania have, it is announced, determined to vote for one-half of the Republican Presidential electors and one-half of the Democratic electors. In this way they hope to neutralize the vote of the State by dividing it, calculating that the Greenback strength is sufficient to carry through every man placed upon their ticket. What is to be gained by the movement is not so clear.
